STUDYING THE ARMADILLO.

During the last three years Drs.
Newman and Patterson, of the school of zoology at the University of Texas, have been interested in working out certain points concerning the biology of the armadillo, probably the most unique animal in Texas. This little creature represents a migrating species, which has in large numbers crossed the frontier of Texas from Mexico and now inhabits the greater portion of the southern half of the state.

The point of special interest in the biology of the armadillo lies in its peculiar method of development. Drs.
Newman and Patterson have found out that the Texas armadillo normally gives birth to four young, and that the individuals of any given litter are invariably of the same sex, that is, they are either all males or all females, never mixed. They have further found that the four young come from one fertilized egg. Instead of each embryo springing from a separate egg, as normally occurs in the other mammals that habitually bring forth more than a single young at a litter. From these discoveries they have been able to make material contributions toward the solution of the interesting and popular question of sex-determination, in that they have been able to show that the sex is a character stamped upon the embryo at the time of fertilization, and in every way is a character subject to the laws of hereditary transmissibility. The results of their studies have appeared in several articles published in one of the leading scientific journals of the country.

In addition to these questions of a purely biological nature, Drs. Newman and Patterson are interested in working out the exact economic status of the armadillo, especially its relation to the agricultural interests of the state.

TO HELP THE COUNTRY GIRL.

On the basis that the census of 1910 gives Texas 3,000,000 people, that 85 per cent of this population is rural, as in 1900, and that one out of every rural community is a young woman, there are 450,000 young women in small towns and rural communities of Texas. With "back to the farm" for the slogan of the day for the young women of the land, the Young Women's Christian Association of the United States of America has rightfully begun definite, organized work in rural communities. Minnesota, Illinois and New Jersey have country Y. W. C. A.'s. The movement is growing all over the nation. To encourage work for the country girl is to be a definite advance policy in the third biennial convention of the Young Women's Christian Association of the United States, which is to meet at Indianapolis, Ind., April 19-24, 1911.

Young Women's Christian Association work in Texas as yet includes only student work in twenty schools and colleges, and city Y. W. C. A. work in five cities—Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, El Paso and San Antonio. The state executive committee of the Young Women's Christian Association of Texas is looking toward beginning the rural and small town work in a model county as soon as the way is open for an advance. A Texas delegation will go up to the Indianapolis convention, and any woman is invited to join the party as a visiting delegate to the convention.
The program, besides the business sessions, will consist of inspirational addresses, and addresses on association work, on immigration as affecting women, and on missions.

Mrs. V. L. Brooks, of Austin, is state chairman in Texas, and Miss Nancy Lee Swann is executive secretary. Their office address is 2007 University avenue, Austin, Texas.

W. J. Walker, Caldwell street,

I was annoyed by a kidney weakness.
I also had severe pains in my back and I found difficulty in attending to my daily work. Some time ago I had the good fortune to hear of Doan's Kidney Pills, and getting a supply at Emmel & Maloney's drug store, I began their use. Their effect was prompt and the results were more satisfactory than I had received from any other preparation I had previously tried. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, highly, knowing from experience that they are a good remedy for kidney disorders."

Are You Looking for the Best?

Do you want the finest? Everyone's answer is, Yes. If you have a Jersey cow, grade or register, it will pay you to breed them to the best bulls you can find. Remember this is equal to one-half your herd. Look up Latoni's Golden Topper No. 84170; and Zinas Sultan No. 85995. These Jersey bulls are both prize winners in and out of the state, and possess a reputation in state and national shows and fairs.

You can secure the services of these fine animals by applying to J. M. CALDWELL, BRYAN, TEXAS. Prices $5.00 and $10.00, payable at time of service. I will be glad to show any one interested pedigrees and the animals themselves. There are none better bred, and very few as well bred.
